TOMORROW IS SCIENCE NIGHT – OCT. 18

Our third annual Science Night is TOMORROW from 5:30 to 8:00pm. If you've signed up for dinner, please come to Monschke Hall at 5:30pm. If you're coming just for the science activities, please come to Monschke Hall at 6:30pm so every student may be put into a group.

HEARING VISION RESULTS

K, 2, 5 and new students were screened on September 22. If you HAVE NOT heard from the school, your child has passed the screenings.

SPEEDING THROUGH THE PARKING LOTS

Please drive 10mph when driving on campus. We need to be very cautious. Please ALWAYS stop at the stop signs. We appreciate your cooperation.

BOOK FAIR – NOV. 3, 4 and 7-10

Starting to look for Christmas presents? Your child will be making wish lists during his/her library class prior to Parent-Teacher conferences. We will have the lists available for you in the library during Parent-Teacher conferences. Also, if you'd like to help during the Book Fair, please contact Stephanie at sdbrunetti@me.com.

ALL SCHOOL POPCORN PARTY- Thurs. Oct. 20

We are going to celebrate surpassing our first composting goal of 150 pounds with a popcorn party during lunch. Please let the office know if your child is NOT able to eat the popcorn.

PIZZA HELPER NEEDED

We are in dire need of an every-other-Friday pizza helper. Please contact the office (465-3301) if you would be able to help at any time. Your student(s) get free pizza on the day you work.

ALL LOST AND FOUND WILL BE SOLD AT THE RUMMAGE SALE ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29

PARENT- TEACHER CONFERENCES NOV. 8-10

Parent-Teacher Conferences are minimum days. School is out at noon. Please return your conference confirmation slip by Friday, Oct. 21. There is Cross Walk until 6pm. Cross Walk will be free ONLY during your conference.

TLCS RUMMAGE SALE

Clean out your closets! You may bring items to the auditorium lobby on Friday, October 28th. Sale is from 8am-2pm on Saturday, October 29th. Help feed the hungry in our area!
